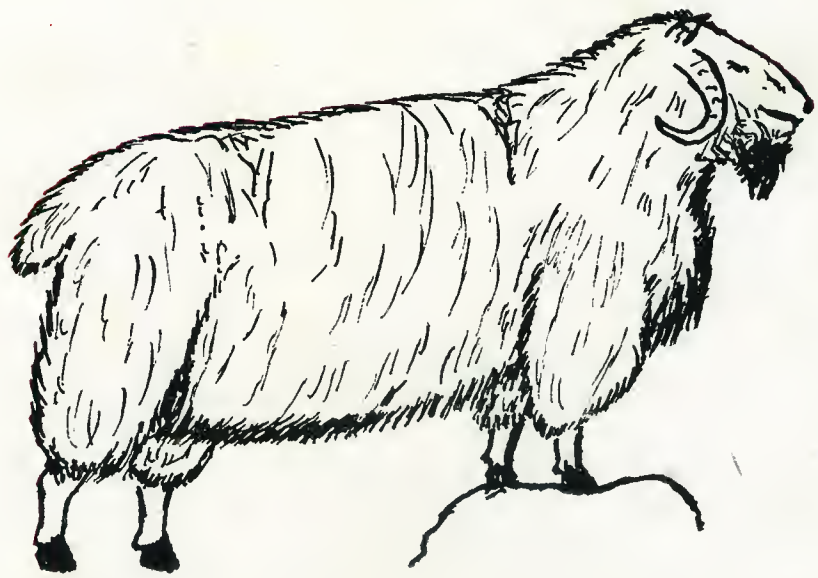
Presents

THE RAM

Volume IV

1949



Dedication

We, the Senior Class of '49 are indeed happy to have the honor of dedicating this, the fourth edition of the Mary Potter Ram, to Our Parents who have helped in so many ways to make it possible. We sincerely hope that this tribute to you will remain in your hearts forever.

"Our Founder"

Dr. George Clayton Shaw

Allow us to express our sincere gratitude to our founder, Dr. George Clayton Shaw, for the standards which he so nobly set before us. We shall strive throughout our lives to uphold those standards to the best of our abilities.

"Our Principal"

Dr. H. S. Davis, D. D.

We will never be able to thank you, our captain, sufficiently for having brought us, your crew, to another safe anchorage with the help of a very able compass, our teaching staff. Again, you have shared with your crew your cargo consisting of wisdom, knowledge and service. "Much luck on your future voyages," is a very small thing to say, but it comes from the depths of our hearts.

Class History

Annie W. Greene

Four years ago, a group of glassy eyed, inexperienced youngsters entered Mary Potter. As they stood around in the chapel, each little mind was wondering what the situation would be, now that they had entered high school for the first time. Pretty soon with the aid of a few teachers, they were given their respective homerooms for classification. So they scampered down the hall noisily as they were accustomed. Many little hearts were saddened because they were separated from their buddies, since there were three divisions. But they soon found new friends and were proud of the fact that they were freshmen in high school.

The first year was not a difficult one for most of us, especially those who were desirious of passing to the next grade. After a few weeks of adjustment, they were hard down at work. And so by the end of the year, this class realized it had spent a prosperous and successful year. Many of the students became members of the basketball team, some were able to make the dramatic club and many other clubs of the school.

The second year of our high school career found us less timid than we were the year before, for we were now sophomores and, of course, we felt more important. This was clearly seen by the little girls who began to wear rouge and lipstick. Some of them even put on full-fashioned hose. The little boys started slicking back their hair and wearing deep creases in their pants. A little love affair sprang up all around the campus also. This was another successful year for us. Only a few dropped out. The places of those who dropped out were filled with members from other schools. Our hearts were made sad during this year, too, because we lost one of our dearest members of the class, Willie Marion Hester, who passed to a better world. Again, we were popular around the campus. Many of us were outstanding in the dramatic club, the glee club and many others.

The third year found us as eager as ever to re-enter school, for this time we were honorable JUNIORS. There was much to look forward to, such as, the Junior and Senior Prom, and most of all—the mere fact that we had one more year before we would be acclaimed as DIGNIFIED SENIORS.

Two of our classmates gave honor to us by being outstanding in GIRLS' BASKETBALL. They were, Mary Jane Robinson and Jean McClendon. Enid Davis became a member of the Mary Potter Trio. Claree Royster and Thomas Hamme were outstanding in the Dramatics Club. Frances Cutchin was also an outstanding member of that club. A respectable number of us became members of the Crown and Scepter Club. This was indeed a prosperous year for us.

On September 15, 1948, a happy bunch of students entered Mary Potter School. You have guessed it already. We were the DIGNIFIED SENIORS. Many outstanding things happened to make the history of the class of 1949 a successful one.

During the fall, Donald Millard became famous as star of the football team, and Deloris Fields was crowned Queen of Homecoming. Jean McClendon and Donald Millard won basketballs at the tournament. The Dramatic Club won first place in the District Dramatic tournament. The seniors that participated were Maxine Smith, Frances Cutchin, and Deloris Fields. Maxine Smith was acclaimed the best actress of the entire district.

The fact that seventy-eight of us stand before you is proof that we have spent a successful year at our dear old Alma Mater. Thus the curtain closes upon this class of 1949 at Mary Potter. However, it rises elsewhere. We, the class of 1949 make a pledge to ever be true to our school, our parents, our principal, our teachers, and our friends who have struggled hard to bring us nearer our goal. We hope that Mary Potter will one day look at us and be as proud of us then as we are of her now.

Class Poem

Our dear Alma-Mater,
We have trusted in you,
Your ideals so golden,
Hath led us so true.

You have taught us to think well,
And to value our time,
To grasp and to conquer,
With knowledge sublime.

We regret that we are leaving;
We know that we must go,
Your ideals will linger,
With us to mark our score.

So in our departings
We would all like to say,
We think you've done wonders,
We are willing to pay.

Claree Royster

Class Song

(Tune: Far Away Places)

Dear old Mary Potter our parting has come
We're sorry to leave you now,
But though we are leaving, our thoughts linger on
In precious mem'ries of you.

Dear old Mary Potter we thank you so
For guiding us all through the years,
We'll always remember what you've done for us
With smiling faces and tears.

Dear Star—a true guidance—you'll carry us through
The paths of fortune and fame,
We pray that the knowledge that
we have attained,
May never be vain.

Dear Old Alma Mater we're leaving you now,
We're sorry our parting has come,
Although we are going our thoughts
will remain
And will keep coming back in refrain.

Big Sisters Club

This club was organized to bring about better conditions among the girls of our school. Consisting of a young lady in the senior class to represent each homeroom, the Big Sisters have served the school well in bettering the surroundings for the entire student body.

It was through the very able leadership of the girl's dean, Mrs. I. S. Brennon along with her co-workers, Misses A. H. Williams, M. C. Morris and E. L. Scriven that these young ladies have accomplished their goal.

ADVISERS

Mrs. R. E. Howell Miss C. L. Mayo

Miss E. L. Scriven

To express the ultimate aim of the Y-Teens the following creed, written by Lillian Keaton, a member of the Mary Potter Chapter of the Y-Teens, has been adopted as the creed of the chapter.

We believe in the Y-Teens,
The girls and women of a greater tomorrow;
That whatsoever the girls doeth
The women shall prosper.

We believe in securing the
Efficiency of schools, the dignity
Of learning, and in the
Joy of helping others.

We believe in wisdom;
In the ability to work with
Hands as well as heads
In any way that would help
Others as well as ourselves.

We believe in work, in play
In faith and in laughter
We believe we will receive a
Just reward for all we do.
We believe most of all in
God, who enables us to believe.

With this in mind, the Y-Teens strive to build a stronger fellowship, to grow in knowledge, and to share God's love with others.
